SOCIAL EVENTS.

Miss Frederika Gibson entertained a small company of friends at a sugar party Friday evening.

The Poverty Ball given April 1, under the auspices of the Woman's Club House association was a great success. The party was held in Bertrand's hall, Madam Brock's five piece orchestra furnished music. About twenty couples were in costume for the grand march and furnished much amusement. Among these were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fairbanks, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harris, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Corriveau, Mr. George Cary, Mrs. J. M. Allen, Dr. Harry Bullard, and Alexander Dunnett. The prize for the worst looking lady was given to Mrs. Cary and for the worst looking man to Dr. Bullard. This entertainment was arranged and planned by Mrs. Harland Howe, and about $50 was cleared for the Association.

A very pretty dancing party was given in Pythian hall, Friday evening by the ninth grade pupils of Portland Street school. Sargent's orchestra furnished music. L. V. Hastings helped the children to arrange this party. It was planned to raise money for the Boston trip.

Little Helen Rogers entertained a few of her little friends at an Easter party, Wednesday afternoon.

The concert given in the Masonic temple, April 2, was a great success in every way. The Mozart Quartet of Boston, which furnished the entertainment gave a very fine program which included singing, instrumental music and a delightful little farce. The audience was greatly pleased and many said that this was the finest entertainment of its kind that they had ever heard here. Over $100 were cleared for the benefit of the Temple Association.

Miss Mellie Guyer was given a surprise party by 20 of her friends last Tuesday evening. She was presented with a beautiful set of dishes with gold bands. Miss Juliet Laferriere read a very very interesting address. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

The Comus Club were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Miss Elsie Sargent, Monday evening. Almost all the members were present. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, and a very good time enjoyed.

Miss Viola May entertained 14 of her friends at her home Friday evening in a most pleasing manner. Various games were played among them some very unique obstacle contests that furnished great amusement. Refreshments were served and dancing enjoyed.

Alger
